

SSPU vice president Hu Sheng led a delegation to visit the United States
SSPU vice president Hu Sheng led a delegation to visit University of Bridgeport and other American universities and had discussions about inter-school exchanges and cooperation from October 8 to 13.

The delegation visited the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut On October 9. Vice president of University of Bridgeport Tarek Sobh and related people warmly welcomed the members of the delegation. The two sides had discussions about the content of in-depth cooperation and exchanges of teachers and students. vice president Hu Sheng and his party also looked in the three visiting teachers of School of Economics and Management who are studying in University of Bridgeport under the “Teachers' professional development project of Shanghai Municipal Education Commission”. The delegation also visited research and development center of ATMI headquarters and had in-depth discussion on the electronic waste recycling technology cooperation with vice president of ATMI Company Dr. Michael Korzenski.

The delegation visited Maryland University which has research projects with SSPU on October 10 and SSPU former Jinqiao Professor Dr. Li Qinghua and teacher Dr. Wang Jifen of School of City Construction and Environmental Engineering who is studying in The State University of New Jersey on October 11.

The members of the delegation included director of the Research Department, Director of the Graduate Department Wang Jingwei and Party Secretary of Humanities and International Exchange Faculty Ji Zhixiang.